

Italy

Following are some of the opportunities available to you in Italy:

USAC Program (University of Turin)

Language requirement: intensive language course at beginning of semester

Cost: $4,900 (one semester); $9,480 (two semesters) plus accommodations

Accommodations: program apartments

Courses students have successfully substituted: BUS 342, BUS 346, BUS 371, BUS 402, BUS 410, BUS 446, finance elective, ECON 323, ECON 300-400, GE C3, GE D5

Website: http://usac.unr.edu/program_overview.php?ProgramID=2643

Timeframe: semester system (one or two semesters)

Questions: Speak with Monica Schechter at the International Education and Programs office (38-106)

CSU International Programs (IP) (CSU Study Center, Florence Academy of Fine Arts, University of Florence)

Language requirement: 8 week prep class and on-going language courses during stay

Cost: $8,525 - $18,800

Accommodations: program-arranged housing, dormitories, family-stay

Courses students have successfully substituted: course offerings include full range of courses in business administration, economics, and statistics through the department of economics

Website: <http://www.gateway.calstate.edu/csuienet/country.cfm?countryID=700356>

Timeframe: year-long

Questions: Speak with Monica Schechter at the International Education and Programs office (38-106)

Italy, cont.

AIFS (Richmond University, Rome & Florence)

Language requirement: intensive language orientation

Cost: $14,445 - $27,090

Accommodations: private home, student apartment

Courses students have successfully substituted: ECON 401, ECON 300-400, BUS International Requirement, ENGL 370, GE Area C, GE C1, GE C4

Website:
<http://www.aifsabroad.com/routing/italy.htm>

Timeframe: semester system (one or two semesters)

Questions: Speak with Monica Schechter at the International Education and Programs office (38-106)

Numerous independent study abroad programs

Can be investigated on your own, and with help from the International Education and Programs office (38-106)

