Announcement from CalFresh

We know how important adequate nutrition is to your success in the classroom. After rent, tuition, and books, sometimes scholarships and loans just don’t cover all of your expenses.

If you could use some extra money for food, consider signing up for CalFresh, a nutrition assistance program that can help with some of your grocery expenses. The average CalFresh student recipient receives $154 monthly to be used on fresh foods at grocery stores or farmers’ markets.

Please stop by drop-in hours on Mondays from 10 AM-4 PM or Fridays from 2 PM- 4 PM to learn more and find out if you may be eligible. No appointment needed! Our office is located in the Health Center (Building 27), room 173B. We can help you through the entire application process and provide supporting resources. Please contact us at 805-399-0236 (we text!) or CalFreshhelp805@gmail.com if you have questions or would like to set up a private appointment.
