2018 Recruitment: MBP Peer Assisted Learning Supporters
Service Period: April 2018 - December 2018

About MBP
Our Multicultural Business Program (MBP) is a diverse and inclusive community for students by students where they matter, belong and with professional support are connected to resources to persist. MBP provides personal, academic and career development services for traditionally underserved and historically underrepresented students in business.

Motto
Matter. Belong. Persist

Vision
MBP envisions an Orfalea College of Business experience where students regardless of their identity or background are engaged and prepared for personal, academic and professional success.

Mission
Our mission is to use peer assisted learning and support to promote the recruitment, retention and success of traditionally underserved and historically underrepresented students in business.

Core Values
Family, Diversity, Inclusion, Commitment, Leadership,

Position Description
Peer Assisted Learning Supporters (PALS) are volunteer student leaders who support and further MBP's mission. Our PALS work hard to foster a familial environment where all students can bring their whole selves to the Orfalea College of Business knowing that we are enriched by our differences in race, skin color, ethnicity, gender, age, nationality, physical abilities, mental and developmental abilities, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, educational background, work styles, political beliefs, cultural practices, perspectives, and passions. If this work excites you, consider joining our MBP family:

- Working on a diverse and dynamic team to support the vision and mission of the Multicultural Business Program
- Leading, planning and executing social activities, special events, industry tours and co-curricular programming during Fall, Winter and Spring 2018 such as Partners Preview, Feel Good Fridays, Leadership Beyond the Resume, and Polycultural Weekend
- Leading discussion and activities in the assigned weekly BUS 100 course every Friday in Fall Quarter 2018 and BUS 206 course every Friday in Winter 2018
  - Provide coaching and guidance for a group of protégés

Position Requirements
- Genuine interest and commitment to supporting MBP’s mission and vision
- Must be committed to volunteer a minimum of 5 hours per week (55+/hrs/quarter)
  - Available on Fridays for onboarding and leadership development in Winter & Spring 2018
  - Available on Fridays 10am-12pm as a Peer Assisted Learning Supporter (PALS) for BUS 100 in Fall 2018
  - Sophomore standing or above in Fall 2018
- Good judicial and academic standing
- Willingness to learn, adapt and be comfortable with ambiguity
- Demonstrated involvement or experience on campus
• May not be employed in another Orfalea Student Services Leadership position

Qualifications:
If interested, please complete the application and upload your resume via Survey Gizmo: http://www.surveygizmo.com/s3/2803478/MBPals-Application
PALS is a competitive student leadership position. We recommend preparing for the application and interview process by visiting Career Services or meeting with the OCOB Career Readiness Advisor, Chelsea Kidwell.
The deadline to apply will be: Friday, January 26th, 2017. Group interviews will start promptly the following Monday, January 29th, 2017.

Please contact us at mbp@calpoly.edu if you have any questions about the application or selection process.